

Learn as much as you can about the country before one studies abroad

Be ACTIVE around campus and meet many friends

Do not feel embarrassed to share your background!
Everyone is different and holds different story!

Sharing the same interest forms an instant bond with your friend

